write :--There is a decidedly better feeling in freights in pretty well all the principal directions since last writing on the 26th

For once, after a very long term of reversed circumstances, enquiries do exceed the supply of tonnage, as far as prompt and fairly prompt boats are concerned anyhow, and there are prospects for the improvement being maintained. The chief factor conducing to the mora favorable state of freights is, without doubt, the now well-established fact that the rice crop in the southern provinces is a failure consequent upon long-continued drought; and that the Yangtse ports can afford to ship large quantities of grain, and at reasonable prices, too. Not only are the two big local shipping Companies thus finding an outlet for all the tonnage they can spare, but outsiders also, and of large size oven, are in strong request, and freights, more especially from Wuhu to Canton, have been advancing quite rapidly lately. Quite a number of fixtures, to some extent locally, for a series of voyages, for No. vember-December, have been effected at rates ranging from about 22 can-MR H. N. Saigon to Java, there has been no change; an occasional offer at 24 cents for end of October/ early November failed to attract attention locally, whilst later on an offer of a bost for quantity and dates and about the same rate as mentioned was allowed to lapse. From Bangkok to this, regular liners rates have advanced, and dealers have, under the circumstances, extended their attention to outside boats, but, so far, one charter only is reported as having resulted, of a small carrier at 30/24 cents. From Java to this 20 cents has been offered and not taken for dry sugar Octo-

LATE TELEGRAMS.

The French Premier on his Erratic Colleague.

London, September 21—The French Premier, speaking at St. Jean Angely to-day, referred to M. Pelletan's speeches. He said: Only let a slightly sensa-tional remark fell from the lips of a Minister, in the fervour of extempore oratory, and the communicative glow of a banquet, even if in the mind of the speaker it only amounted to a literary ornabecomes for the enemies of the Cabinet a Government utterance. M. Combes further declared that Ministers individually were only responsible for their own departments. Hence the pretension to bind the Cabinet to a phrase, more or less incorrectly reported, was of no account. He concluded by affirming the Government's desire for friendly relations with all nations.

THE YARN MARKET.

In their Cotton Yarn Market Report, dated 11th inst., Messrs Cawasjee Pal-Isnjee and Co. write :--

On closing our last report on the 26th ultimo, hopes were entertained of an improvement in the prices of our Bombay Yarn, and during the first couple of days a good lot changed hands at current rates or a trifle better, latterly, owing to the immense anxiety on the part of cortain insporters to realize the rates ruling, prices again declined about fifty cents; the Chinese speculators sold a lot of their formor purchases even at a loss which were taken up by the foreign importers at reduced rates for the Northern markets. It is reported that about nearly 2,000 Bales w re resold. A limited business transpired in No. 20s, 16s and 21s at current rates.-No. 10s have changed hands at an advance at first, but latterly prices gave way, and a decline of above tifty cents was established. No. 6s. and 8s. are out of favour. Sales during the fortnight consist of about 50 Bales of No. 6s, 3,650 Bales of No. 10s., 470 Bales of No. 12s., 355 Bales of No. 16s, 675 Bales of No. 20s, -in all about 5,200 Bales. Arrivals during the fortnight per steamers Namsang, Milki Maru, and Capri of about 10,000 Bales. Shipments to Shanghai and the Coast Ports of about 15,000 Bales. The unsold stock is estimate ed at about 42,000 Bales.

Local Productions :- No sales are rereported in the market.

Japanese Yarn :- Sales of about 150 Bales of No. 16s at $112, and about 100 Bales of No. 20s at $123 are reported it the market.

Li in many respects were men of greater fluence they exerted on the two southern provinces is much inferior to that of the atter, whose reforms will make his name long to be remembered, To Mu was a Hunanese on his father's side, but his mother is believed to have been a Cantonese of humble rank. He comes of a family that has rendered distinguished service to China. His father was Viceroy in Canton seventy odd years ago. During his forty or fifty years of official life, To Mu has filled all the positions between a district magistrate and a viceroy. He came to His last term of office has added much to his deservedly great reputation. his arrival, he was dissatisfied with the prevalence of lawlessness and robbery in town and country. Several times, after severe illnesses, he petitioned the Throne to allow him to retire; but all such requests were refused till the other day. Some have unfairly interpreted these applications to mean that he was tired of the disorder and difficulties of the territory over which he ruled. The sad circumstances of his death so soon after he received permission to leave is a sufficient answer to all such allegations. Some of the more ardent members of the Reform Party have found fault with T'o Mu's achievements, but they forget the immense difficulties he has had to over come in order to carry out the reforms and changes he has successfully effected. He has shewn kindness not to say sympathy, to not a few men now at large in Canton who were deeply imbued with Kang Yu-wei's ideas, and who were closely connected with that Reformer in his attempt to forcibly set up a new Government in Peking. To Mu's death coming so soon after that of Liu Kupyi, is a great loss for China. The two men had many points in common, and have proved themselves the true friends of their country by acting with calmness and courage when so many of their fellow officials had lost their heads. stemming of the current at that critica time has given China the new lease of life which she has to-day. Memorial by the late T'o Mu. The retiring Viceroy of the Liang Kuang, H. E. To Mu, has shown his appreciation of foreign learning in a recent memorial, says the N.-C. Daily News. United States Asiatic Steamers. A New York correspondent writes: The American Asiatic Steamship Company is about to start a service direct between New York and all Asiatic ports, using chartered vessels until liners specially built in American shipyards are ready, and this without any expectation of a subsidy, The Company's promoters are connected with such tirms as Messrs. Kountze Brothers, Messrs, Vermilye and Company, Messrs, Brown Brothers, Mr August Belment, Mr Cornelius Vanderbitt, and perisonally interested Oriental agents, such as Mesers, Shewan, Tomes, and Company. The Union Pacific Company will contest the Pacific trade with Mr Hill's great Northern line. On October 9, the Oregon short line Stockholders will amend their charter to authorise stemmship operations. This shows the serious view taken of Mr Hill's plans for the Pacific trade, as the Union Pacific, through the Southern Pacific Company, is equipped for a considerable Pacific trade already.

Hongkong Boat Club.

The members of the Hongkong Boat Club may be said to have inaugurated the season with the smoking concert they held in the City Hall on Saturday night. There was a large turn-out of members and friends, who were presided over by Mr C. H. Gale, the popular Hon. Secretary. O musical talent there was no lack, all the items on the programme were encored, and the company did not disperse till a late hour. Mr F. C. Barlow played several violin solos, displaying considerable technical skill, and the others who contributed to the night's enjoyment were Messrs C. Lammert, E. Mirow, F. G. Whittick, W. J. Terrill, W. T. Burgess and Pyke, Mr A. G. Ward was accompanist. During the evening, the Sikh pipers of the Royal Garrison Artillery played selections of pipe music with much 'virr.' Altogether, the smoker was an unqualified success, and if the members of the Boat Club take as keen an interest in sport during the ensuing rowing season a greater success than that nchieved last year is assured to them

With reference to the question of storm warnings, the correspondence about which between the Chamber of Commerce and the Colonial Secretary has already been published, the Hon. C. S. During the year, the Company acquired the stock and goodwill of a similar business carried on by Mrs Stockhausen. The wisdom sten has been fully justified by results. In the month of April, having in view the approach of the slack season and the desirability of personal consultation between our Manager and our buyers in London, it was decided by us to send Mr Hockford to England. THE DEATH OF EX-VICEROY

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

TO MU.

· GANTON, October 11. Viceroy To Mu, who has been ill more or less for a long time, died early yesterday, Friday morning. He had only quitted his yamen a few days, and was living in house near the New Bund. His son is it Canton. Of course, as all arrangements for T'o Mu'a auccessor were made some time ago, his death will not affect any appointments. The report of the death of To Mu was freely circulcated yesterday, but much scopticism was expressed, people feeling that his name was confused with that of

.In spite of many reports months ago that T'o Mu was immediately retiring, was not till the beginning of October that he moved out of the viceregal yamen, gave up the seals to Tak Shau, and took up his residence in a house near the New Bund. He stuck to his post with great determinabeen valued by our Manager, who assures cancelling of the agreement, which was tion, partly because the new governor us that the valuation is a fair one; but, as due to the default of the defendant, there had not arrived and partly because he did had not arrived and partly because he did His Lordship gave judgment for the not like his designated successor. To Mu had a great dread of the sea, and in conplaintiff, fixing the damages at $74,760, nection with this it will be remembered that when he came to Cauten rather than come on a steamer he travelled the whole journey overland. To return the way he came was not practicable, and, as a last resort, he had arranged to embark on Tuesday, October 14. And now, sad to tell, or most fortunately, just secording to the point of he has embarked ou a longer journey. His appetite, never good, had lately failed entirely, and with the failing appetite his illness has increased. On Thursday evening, serious symptoms began to appear, and towards midnight the aged viceroy breathed his last. The present viceroy, the new governor, and all the high mandarins were summoned to the late viceroy's tem porary residence. a good and great man, is now in Canton.

The colours of the Hongkong Regiment were installed in their final place of repose, St. John's Church, yesterday. An escort Mr Bentton's Altgold (Owner) composed of two companies of the battalion in full review uniform marched to the Durbar House, headed by the Regimental band, and, receiving the colours, escorted - them up to the Cathedral. Major Berge and the British and native officers marched a little in advance of the escort, the bright uniform of which made an exceedingly pretty picture. Many interested groups of people watched the progress of the military procession, which was met at the west door by the chaplain. A Royal salute having been played, the choir, chaplain, and the officers, native and British, proceeded up the central aisle, the choir and congregation singing 'Onward, Christian Soldiers' (Sullivan's setting). The escort did not remain for the service, returning instead to the barracks, but the native officers sat with their British brothers in arms in the front row of chancel seats. They seemed to take a deep interest in the solemn service, the musical portion of which was admirably sung by the choir. The responses were Ferral; the Te Deum was Baker in F. The Rev. F T. Johnson, M.A., the chaplain, preached an eloquent sermon appropriate to the occasion, and after the offertory, Lieut. Moberley advanced with the King's - Colour and Subudar-Major Sardar Khan, C.I.E., with the rich yellow regimental ensign, and handed them to the Chaplain at the altar rails, who said :-On behalf of the Church Body of this

NO OPIUM IN CHAMBERLAIN'S

COUGH REMEDY. MANY cough cures contain opium. The We effect of this drug is to diminish secretion of the mucus, and the relief afforded is only temporary. As soon as the effect of the opium passes off, the malady returns in a more severe form. The system is also weakened and rendered more susceptible to cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy does not contain opium in any form. It affords relief and leaves the system in a healthy condition. It always cures and cures quickly.
